● Weekly chapter/new member meetings and other mandatory events throughout the semester
  ○ Extent of involvement may vary depending on semester and what roles students have in the chapter
● Academics always comes first!
What does it cost?

• Dues vary for each organization and all payment is handled through individual chapters
• Panhellenic Council & Interfraternity Council (IFC)
  • Dues (per semester)
    • New Member $500-$1000
    • Active Member $400-$900
  • Payment plans and scholarships available
  • Typically cost more during first semester due to one time fees
• National Pan-Hellenic Council (NPHC)
  • Dues: $900-$1400 one-time lump sum in the first semester, much lower thereafter
7 Sorority Houses & 5 Fraternity Houses owned by CofC and overseen by the Department of Residence Life & Housing, 3 off-campus privately owned homes.

Houses hold 5-12 members, each organization responsible for filling their houses and do so differently.

Houses are not a central part of fraternity/sorority experience at The College.
The College of Charleston, as well as each national fraternity and sorority, has a zero-tolerance policy regarding hazing that is consistent with South Carolina state law.

Students receive education on many different topics related to risk, both from CofC and their national organizations.

If you feel that your student is participating in inappropriate activities as a result of membership in a fraternity or sorority there is a form located on the Office of Fraternity & Sorority Life webpage.
