New Student Virtual Orientation

Students will receive the zoom links for the sessions on the day before their orientation session to their College of Charleston email. The virtual sessions are for students only.

9:00-10:15 am  Intern Small Group Meeting – Part 1
An opportunity for students to meet other new students and learn about the resources at the College of Charleston from a current College of Charleston student. The orientation interns will cover how to use various campus resources and MyCharleston.

10:30 am to 12 noon  Academic Advising
Students will meet with academic advisors to review the general education requirements, learn how to use the course registration section of MyCharleston and review Degree Works, and receive instructions for their homework for registration in the afternoon of orientation. (for those who register in the afternoon)

12 noon  Lunch

1:00-1:30 pm  Academic Majors Meeting with Faculty Representatives
The academic major meetings are an opportunity for students, decided and undecided, to meet representatives from various colleges and departments to learn about majors at College of Charleston - their courses, their structure and their sequencing. There is also an opportunity for undecided students to learn about resources available to help them select a major.

The time of the following two sessions below will vary depending on student’s individualized schedule.

Course Registration
Students should plan to allot one and a half hours for course registration. Students who are assigned homework will review their homework from the academic advising workshop that occurred in the morning and then enroll in classes for the upcoming semester. The student’s registration time CANNOT BE CHANGED. This session is for students only.

Intern Small Group Meeting – Part II
An opportunity for new students to ask questions of the orientation intern team, discuss diversity programs at CofC and learn about how to get involved on campus.
